MIZZ15 Personal Management (AM & PM)

Personal management is about mapping a plan for your life that will involve setting short-range and long-range goals and investigating different ways to reach those goals. Education, training, and experience all help make your goals become a reality. To achieve your goals, you will choose the best path and make a commitment to it, while remaining flexible enough to deal with changes and new opportunities.

9:30-4:30 PM

Instructor: Lori Hulbert

Prerequisites: The following requirements need to be completed prior to class: Req. 1, 2 (requires 13 consecutive weeks of assembled budget items), 8, 9 and 10 (consider a career path to be discussed with the counselor).

MIZZ152 Public Speaking (AM Only)

A lot happens during the course of every person's life and your ability to communicate your feelings and ideas is the best way to connect to the larger world. Even if you haven't stood at a podium on the stage and find the whole idea scary, sooner or later, someone is going to ask you to get up and say a few words. If you are prepared, it won't be scary. It can even be fun.

9:30-12:30 PM

Instructor: Diane Fefferman

Minimum number of participants: 2

Maximum number of participants: 20

Prerequisites: Number 2: Prepare a three- to five-minute talk on a topic of your choice that incorporates body language and visual aids.

MIZZ105 Reptile and Amphibian Study (AM)

Boys always have been interested in snakes, turtles, lizards, and alligators, as well as frogs and salamanders. Developing knowledge about these captivating creatures leads to an appreciation for all native wildlife; understanding the life cycle of a reptile or amphibian and keeping one as a pet can be a good introduction to natural history; and knowing about venomous species can help Scouts to be prepared to help in case of an emergency.
